NOTIFICATION.

The 25th March 1891.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja have been pleased to frame the following Rules for the management of Government Girls' schools by Committees :—

Rules for the management of Government Girls' schools by Committees.

[redacted] maintained from State Funds shall be placed under the general supervi-

2. The Committee will be composed partly of leading Government Officers and partly of Non-Official Gentlemen, and when possible also of English and Indian Ladies taking interest in female education.

3. The number of members on each Committee shall not be less than six or more than eighteen.

4. One-third of the members shall form the quorum.

5. The Government will appoint the President of the Committee. The President and in his absence, any chairman selected by the members present shall preside at each meeting.

6. All questions on which there is a division shall be decided by a majority of votes, the President having a casting vote.

7. The ordinary meeting of the Committee shall be held once in each month.

8. The Head Master or Superintendent may attend each meeting of the Committee to give any information required, but shall not vote, unless he or she is a member of the Committee.

9. Extraordinary meetings of the Committee shall be called by a written notice signed by any three members of the Committee.

10. The Committee may appoint from among their numbers an Honorary Secretary or two Honorary Secretaries, whose duty it shall be to keep a full account of the business transacted at each meeting. Such account shall be read at the next meeting and if approved, signed by the President or chairman before the business of that meeting is proceeded with.

11. The Committee will exercise a general supervision over the management of the school, inspect the school occasionally, and secure as far as possible the sympathy, confidence and support of the people by affording on all occasions their help and co-operation in maintaining discipline and a high moral tone.

12. The Committee shall, with the approval of Government, frame such general rules for the management of their school as in their opinion are calculated to promote its efficiency and popularity.

13. The Committee shall have power without assigning any reason, either to refuse admission to any girl or to discharge one already admitted, in the interests of the general well-being of the school.

14. The course of instruction, the text books, and the scale of the school establishment and of scholarships shall be approved of and sanctioned by the Government after due consideration of the views and recommendations of the Committee.

15. The appointment, promotion, punishment, suspension and dismissal of any member of the school establishment will be sanctioned by the Government after due consideration of any recommendations which the Committee may submit.

By Order,

H. J. BHABHA,
Education Secretary.
